

Curriculum Vitae: Daniel J Glenney

To: The Worshipful Master and Brethren, Templum Fidelis Lodge AFAM # 746

Brethren, I have put together a short curriculum vitae for your information and use as you may require, in reference to my speech on June 19, 2010.

Mother Lodge:

- Niagara # 2, Niagara on the Lake
- Initiated, Passed, Raised in 1979
- First Lodge Historian

Hazeldean # 517:

- Moved to Ottawa in 1987, eventually affiliated with Hazeldean # 517
- Worshipful Master Hazeldean # 517 in 2004-2005

Grand Lodge:

- Team Leader in Library/Archives/Museum Committee - current office
- Grand Archivist, appointed at 2009 Grand Lodge; current projects include commemoration of the graves of the Grand Masters, military Freemasons commemoration, Masonic digital museum, history of Freemasonry in the War of 1812

Concordant Masonic Bodies:

- Maple Granite Chapter Royal Arch Masons in Carleton Place, First Principal in 2008-2009
- Order of the High Priests and Conclave: applications accepted for spring 2010

Education:

- Master of Arts, Canadian History, University of Guelph, 1973

Employment History:

- Employed by Toronto Historical Board at Old Fort York and Maritime Museum in 1971 and 1972
- Served with Parks Canada - Historic Sites Branch from 1973 to 1987 in Halifax, Castle Hill Newfoundland, Cornwall and Niagara on the Lake, in historic sites management, program development, curatorial projects
- Employed at the Canadian War Museum from 1987, served as team member to build and equip the new Canadian War Museum opened in 2005, retired as Director of Collections in 1987
- Currently principal officer of Dan Glenney Museum Services, a museum consulting service

Other Personal Interests:

- Canadian Armed Forces (Reserve), 56th Field Regiment of Artillery Cadet Corp instructor, Niagara Falls, Ontario, 2nd Lieut., 1977 to 1980.
- Volunteer Firefighter, Niagara-on-the-Lake Fire Department District # 1, 1979 to 1987
- Member of the "Honourable Company" of the Lincoln and Welland Regiment, and advisor to the Regimental Museum
- Member, Royal Canadian Legion Branch # 638, Kanata Ontario

- Hobbies include: sailing, gardening, agricultural antiques, woodworking, blacksmithing, model railways, steam power technology, antique firearms, military history, genealogy
- Native of Haldimand County, Canboro Township, near Dunnville in Southern Ontario, married, 3 grown children
- Presented with the Queen Elizabeth 2nd Golden Jubilee Medal on November 9, 2002

Respectfully submitted,

V. W. Bro. Daniel J Glenney
May 26, 2010