

Brother Ryan J. Flynn

Ryan was born in Winchester, Massachusetts, USA and currently resides in Nashua, New Hampshire with his wife of 7 years, Kristen and their daughter Mia. An artist since his early years, Ryan gained a deep love of the arts while in high school at Lexington Christian Academy in Lexington, MA. His art professor, Mr. Chip Vanderbrug, instructed Ryan as he learned basic and advanced techniques in drawing, painting and sculpture; as well as mediums such as mosaics, stained glass and set design.

After high school, Ryan studied art and design at the University of Massachusetts in Lowell, MA. There he excelled at painting, drawing and the graphic arts. In 2006 Ryan studied painting and art history at the University of Richmond in Florence, Italy. This trip highly motivated him to dive deeper into studying symbology, numerology and techniques of the masters.

In 2010, Ryan became a member of Ancient York Lodge No. 89 of Free and Accepted Masons in Nashua, NH. After noticing a decline in the fine arts in Masonry, Ryan started creating Masonic inspired works, starting with 2 large faux stained glass windows which now adorn the Nashua Masonic Temple. This work was highly publicized in numerous magazines and websites and led to him being contacted by fellow Masons from around the world.

Ryan continues to work in Nashua with many mediums and is available at any time to discuss potential works of arts. Ryan is currently the Senior Warden of Ancient York Lodge No. 89 in Nashua, New Hampshire, a 32nd Degree Scottish Rite Mason, a member of the Philaethes Society and the Phylaxis Society. He was a featured presenter at the sixth annual Masonic Restoration Foundation Symposium in August, 2015.
